Ask for provision and safety as the Roma puppet team serves multiple towns and as the church in Resen seeks a newer ministry van for outreach. Pray for bold, gracious witness in Skopje's Old Bazaar and encouragement for smaller fellowships such as the Roma group in Kavadarci.

9. Langham Partnership

Keep praying for the revised edition of the Africa Bible Commentary, which was finally released globally in November. Pray they may each be firmly rooted in Christ, growing in the faith and with hearts overflowing with thanksgiving. Pray for protection over them and for courage and steadfastness. As the ministry marks its 40th anniversary on 27 February and celebrates throughout the year, give thanks for God's faithfulness and ask that this milestone strengthens unity, deepens discipleship and opens new doors for service. Give thanks too for recent Holiday Bible Clubs and Family Festivals in Chiquimula where children and parents heard the gospel; ask that new faith among the 71 children who responded, and the mothers and young women baptised, will be nurtured through faithful follow up.

21. Haiti - WorldShare

25. South Asia - Church Mission Society

Across South Asia, many people see Christianity as a foreign religion, partly because God's Word is not available in local languages. #### 29. Bhutan - Sharing Christ Internationally

Bhutan, like Mongolia, has the Tibetan form of Buddhism as its culture. Both with the same occult darkness of Tibetan Buddhist. Both where mission and nationals mix the Bible with Buddhist concepts and where confusion reigns. But 98% of Bhutanese nationals who profess Christ had the fact God is different presented to them and request Bible translation which is distinct from Buddhism. Since September 2024 SCI volunteers have been working with a translator doing that, helping and encouraging him. It affects the 12 languages of Bhutan, Tibetan amongst them. There is no financial support for this work. It is amazing to see how evangelical mission to Bhutan and Mongolia has been brought together by God over the conviction on the Holy, sacred nature of God as shown in the Bible.
